

Happy Winter from Blue Dog Bakery

It rarely snows in Seattle, but this December we had over 14" in our backyard alone. Now we live in a town built on hills with only a few snowplows to keep the highways open. As the snow continued day after day, as the airport closed, as the kids sledded and snowboarded down the (closed) main streets in town, I felt overwhelmed.

But I guess I had nothing to worry about in comparison to his guy. Talk about taking your fun with you! Looks like he's packing for an upcoming snowball fight!

Happiest of New Year's to you.
Margot

(I apologize for failing to remember whose doggie this is or its name - what a beauty!)

A HAPPY DOG'S BEDTIME PRAYER

Now I lay me down to sleep,
The queen-size bed is soft and deep.
I sleep right in the center groove,
My human being can hardly move.

I've trapped her legs,
she's tucked in tight,
and here is where I pass the night.
No one disturbs me or dares intrude,
Til morning comes and I want food.

I sneak up slowly and it begins,
My nibbles on my human's chin.
she wakes up slowly and smiles and shouts,
"You darling beast!
Just cut it out!"
But morning's here and its time to play,
I always seem to get my way.

So thank you Lord, for giving me,
this human person that I see
The one who holds me tight and shares her bed with me at night!
